

Art around the galleries

WHAT Chris Bond: White
WHERE Nellie Castan Gallery, 12
River Street, South Yarra.
Phone 9804 7366.

We saw these thumb-through paperbacks (right) as part of his installation at the Australian Centre for Contemporary Art earlier this year but here these fastidiously rendered Flesh and Blood books with cover images that skip from family to biology to horror are displayed separately and take centre stage. They are accompanied by a series of geometric light paintings, all clean edges and varying shades of white, in a way that evokes the blinding feeling of staring into the sun. Closes today.

